

2007 Holiday Gift Guide – Spotlight on Kryzia’s Kreation

November 7th, 2007

Just as every woman tells her own story through her sense of style, every striking piece in the collection of Kryzia Kreation has its own tale to tell.

From the Enchanted Forest to lands of Wild Whimsy, you get more than your average piece of jewelry. You also get a fantastic world spelled out in sterling and stone.

The Inle Lake Pagoda Pendant speaks of far-off Burma with its soft blue topaz and sterling silver formed into an ancient asian symbol with clean and simple lines. The pendant is given more depth and interest with hand hammered details.

Drawing her inspiration from magic and lore, designer Christina Paluszek has woven a magical tapestry of myth, forged in metal and stone.
